

Young Professional Application for Free Convention Registration

Sponsored by the Women in ACI

ACI thrives on the collaborations of those with diverse skills, experience, and perspectives. To this end, the Women in ACI are dedicated to sharing the experience of professional and technical collaboration with emerging faces of concrete.

Contest Deadline: February 15, 2019 11:59 pm EST

Contest Rules and Requirements:

- 1) ACI membership is not required.
- 2) The contest is only open to those who have been in a concrete or construction related industry for less than 8 years. Years spent as a full-time undergraduate student studying a concrete or construction related field do not count toward that number. Any years spent studying as a student after achieving an undergraduate degree will count towards the 8-year requirement.
- 3) The winner must be able to attend The ACI Concrete Convention and Exposition – Spring 2019 in Quebec City, QC, Canada, from March 24-28, 2019. This prize is not transferable. You may not use this free registration at a future ACI Convention or event, and a cash prize will not be awarded in lieu of registration.
- 4) The contest winner will receive one full registration to convention, valued at $900. The winner is responsible for making, and paying for, all other travel arrangements, including airfare, hotel accommodations, food allowance, etc.
- 5) To win, you must submit a completed application.
